

Grammar:

Error Complex verb group Subordinate clause

General description

Error (36 times)

Inappropriate verb form: 13 times (will wearing; which is buy; will not ~~to~~ design; think design; need to ~~painting~~ their design; think design; to living; they want to wearing; that we wearing; I ~~am~~ disagree; will wearing; they going to; will wear, ~~wearing~~)

Singular/ plural noun form: 4 times (some country; different country; different place; wearing the shirt)

Subject-verb agreement: 3 times (they thinks; clothes which is buy; people is)

Missing connectives: 1 time (judge them ^ wearing too low)

Missing verb: 1 time (these people can ^ very comfortable)

Missing noun: 1 time (wear very comfortable and smart causal ^)

Missing article: 1 time (going to ^ happy hour)

Inappropriate sentence inversion: 1 time (what make of this clothes)

Redundant article: 11 times

Complex verb group

not found

Subordinate clause (16 times)

Adverbial clause: 8 times

Noun clause: 7 times

Relative clause: 1 time

The Education University of Hong Kong

Lexical resource:

Less common words Paraphrase Idiomatic expressions Collocations

Appropriacy of the words used

General description

Less common words: no less common words are identified.

Paraphrase: 1 paraphrase is coded.

Be forced to wear -> have the right to choose

Idiomatic expressions: no idiomatic expression is identified.

Collocations: no collocation is coded.

Appropriacy of the words used: 10 inappropriate uses of words are coded.

Inappropriate collocations: 5 times (make their clothing; paint their design; make it ~~out~~; disagree ^ this point; going to happy hour)

Inappropriate word choice: 5 times (very wasting time; wearing too less; wearing too low; open minded to the other countries; we haven't to let)

The Education University of Hong Kong

E-Examiner S-Student

E: So we've been talking about the type of clothing that you like to wear. And now I'd like to ask you one or two more general questions related to this. Let's consider designer clothing. Are designer clothes popular in your country?

S: Design a clothing is not popular in my country because people would like to buy some [SUB-adverbial clause] clothes in the shopping mall and they will wear the clothes, very, they will wearing the [wear] clothes which is buy in the shopping mall. They will not ~~to~~ design their clothes. [are] [bought]

E: For those people who do like to buy designer clothes, why do you think they like to buy them? Why do they like to wear designer clothes?

S: Because people don't like to design a clothes, but they would like to buy a clothes because [SUB-adverbial clause] [SUB-adverbial clause] they thinks design a clothes is very difficult and they would like to, to make their clothing more [SUB-noun clause] [think] [designing] [get the clothes] easily.

E: When you say designer clothes is difficult, what do you mean?

S: When the people want to design a clothes, they need to paint, painting their design and they [SUB-adverbial clause] [create] need to put down their idea on ~~the~~ paper and then they need to think how to ... to choose the ... [SUB-noun clause]

how to make this clothing ... what make of clothing ... of this clothes and then they need to [what an item of clothing is made of]

make it ~~out~~. So I think that they will like ... they will think design a clothes is very wasting time. [SUB-noun clause] [SUB-noun clause] [designing] [time-consuming]

E: Let's turn now to clothes people wear to work. Do you think people at work make judgments about their colleagues? According to the kind of clothes they wear?

S: People will judge someone wearing too less, because in some country, people ... the, the, the [too little] [SUB-adverbial clause] [countries]

females ... when they ... when the females wear too sexy, the guys will ... the, the country is ...
[SUB-adverbial clause]

will judge them ^wearing too low.
[because of] [too little]

E: What about in Hong Kong? You know when people see their colleagues come to work dressed in a certain way, do they form an opinion about the person because of their clothes?

S: I think in Hong Kong, people is very open minded. They can ... they can ... they're open [SUB-noun clause] [are] minded to the other countries come from different country. So I think in Hong Kong, these [those] [countries] [SUB-noun clause]

people can ^very comfortable to living in Hong Kong.
[can feel very] [live]

E: You think that people should be forced to wear certain clothes to work? Their employer tells them 'You must wear these clothes'. Do you think that's okay?

S: I think people have the right to choose the clothes which they want to wearing. We haven't [SUB-noun clause] [SUB-relative clause] [wear] to let the employer feel happy that we wearing the right clothes in the working place. So I [shouldn't have to make] [wear]

think I'm disagree this, this point.
[disagree with this point]

E: Has the way that people dress for work changed in recent times?

S: Sorry, can you repeat the question?

E: In Hong Kong, are people dressing the same way for work as they did in the past? Or has it changed?

S: In Hong Kong, people will wear the different clothes in the different place. When they go to [places] [SUB-adverbial clause]

work, they will wearing the shirt and the trousers. When they going to ^happy hour, go to bar, [wear] [shirts] [SUB-adverbial clause] [go] [for] [a happy hour]

they will wear, ~~wearing~~ very comfortable and ~~the~~ smart casual^. So I've, [very comfortable and smart casual clothes]

E: I will stop you there. Again. Sorry to interrupt. Thank you very much. That's the end of the test.

The Education University of Hong Kong