E: Right now I'm going to give you a topic. And I'd like you to talk about it for one to two minutes. Before you talk, you'll have one minute to think about what you're going to say. And you can make some notes if you wish. You understand?

S: Yes.

E: The topic I'd like you to talk about is the type of clothing you like to wear. Right. So first of all, you got one minute to prepare. All right. Now remember, you've got one to two minutes for this. So don't worry if I stop you. I'll tell you when the time is up. Can you start speaking now please?

S: So I found it very interesting that you chose this specific topic because I really do have a love [SUB-adverbial clause] [SUB-adverbial clause] [CVG-emphatic 'do']
/hate relationship with the entire concept of clothes. My problem comes from the fact that I grew up in Pakistan and so your performance and your ... how you presented yourself in society held [SUB-noun clause] [SUB-noun clause]
